

WINTER CONVOCATION 2021

Workshops offered on weeknights February 8—12 at 7 pm with assigned paperwork (watching a video, reading a chapter or two of something, etc.). The one-hour workshop will be used for directly diving into the content.

Registration is required by February 4th—all events are free.

Register Here.

Workshop Topics:

- Monday, February 8th - Looking at God's Church

A conversation with The Rev. Sean Steele, rector of a great, creative missional parish in Texas. A 40-minute video to watch before the session will be provided. See here for more information: <https://faithandleadership.com/church-has-no-walls-many-doors-accessible-seekers-and-skeptics>

- Tuesday, February 9th - Building Relationships

In her new book - A Family Like Mine: Biblical Stories of Love, Loss, and Longing - The Rev. Rosalind C Hughes, Church of the Epiphany, Euclid, [finds] that regardless of how we define family, stories of the Bible shape how we claim our place in the household of God today. Each person or family attending the workshop will receive a free copy of her book.

- Wednesday, February 10th - Spiritual Formation

The Rev. Anna Sutterisch will lead a discussion in Soultending: Experiential (and experimental) Spirituality using common objects and tools from home.

- Thursday, February 11th - Exploring Connections

Chef Lonny Gatlin and Farmer Kyle Mitchell share the ways they experience God and faith in their vocations of hospitality, cooking, farming, and husbandry.

- Friday, February 12th - Game Night

The youth of the Diocese of Ohio will lead us in a multi-generational, interactive, exciting game night. Followed by Compline. All ages welcome!